Things are really on the move at Johannes Kopp's winery! The construction of a new building that will house the winery and its own eatery is progressing, with completion scheduled for September 2022. At the same time, the conversion to biodynamic farming is underway too and the winemaker is planning to breed Scottish Highland cattle. How marvellous that the wine has not been neglected. On the contrary: The 2018 Felsenstück Spätburgunder is outstanding, and the basic 2018 Spätburgunder is captivating with a sensational price-performance ratio. Congratulations on the fourth star!

91 2018 »Blanc de Blancs« extra brut

On the nose, a scent of lemon tart, orange peel and black-currant. On the palate there is attractive acidity which balances both the primary and secondary aromas extremely well. A good aftertaste emerges from the medium-bodied wine, accompanied by a fine mousse. 12.5 vol.-%, NK, €€

90 2018 »Cuvée Blanc« brut RR/GM

At first, opulent mousse. Then citrus, floral, and a note of brioche on the nose. Lemon reappears on the palate followed by sweet peach, ripe cherry, and violets, cushioned by lively acidity with an almost fine mousse and a lovely aftertaste. 12 vol.-%, NK, €€

95 2018 Varnhalt Klosterbergfelsen Felsenstück Spätburgunder trocken

Strikingly intense, fresh aromas of savoury wild blueberry. On the palate, taut, but not austere, ripe tannins, firm acidic backbone, density, tension, nerve, grip, and depth. A wine that has been left to mature, unadulterated. A Pinot-like structure with cool Black Forest fruit. 12 vol.-%, NK, €€€

93+ 2018 Varnhalt Klosterbergfelsen Sommerhalde Spätburgunder trocken

A fine fragrance of medium intensity. Exciting aromatic complexity with notes of mushroom, sour cherry, plum and clove with very fine acidity that balances both the fruit and the young, fine-grained tannins. Mineral, juicy and with a lot of body on the aftertaste. 13 vol.-%, NK, €€€

90+ 2018 Spätburgunder trocken

A clearly marked savoury and fruit aroma followed by tomato leaf, cherry, lush raspberry and a hint of cranberry. On the palate rather typical with fine-grained tannins, lively acidity and good texture. Exciting wine. Excellent value for money. 13.5 vol.-%, DV, €€
